2. This case has been discussed further with [ ] General Counsel's office, and [ ] agrees that it appears that the interpretations placed on Section 201(G) of the Nationality Act of 1940, as amended, by Mr. Nicholas is correct. There is nothing more that this office can do with regard to the matter in the absence of additional facts which have not heretofore been presented. Since this matter is one of interpretation of laws, it is suggested that in the event you desire to carry the case further, it be discussed in detail with appropriate representatives of the office of General Counsel. 25X1A9A
